Surrender charge schedule

A Surrender Charge Period equal to your Multi-Year Guaranteed Interest Rate Period will apply. During the first 30 days after the end of your guaranteed interest rate period, you may choose to renew the contract to a subsequent Multi-Year Guaranteed Interest Rate Period, including a subsequent Surrender Charge Period and MVA Period. You may also choose to make a partial surrender and apply the remaining annuity funds to a subsequent Multi-Year Guaranteed Interest Rate Period, including a subsequent Surrender Charge Period and MVA Period. Or, you may choose one of the following renewal options without incurring a Surrender Charge or MVA: annuitize the contract, surrender the contract, or renew the contract to a one-year interest rate guarantee period during which Surrender Charges and MVAs do not apply. This choice will automatically renew each contract year thereafter.

If no specific election is made, renewal to a Multi-Year Guaranteed Interest Rate Period will automatically occur. The renewal interest rate will never be less than the contract's minimum guaranteed interest rate.

Market Value Adjustment

During each Multi-Year Interest Rate Guarantee Period, any amount surrendered is subject to a Market Value Adjustment (MVA). The MVA may increase or decrease the amounts payable. The MVA is waived for the amount of any benefit for which Surrender Charges are waived.

Withdrawals of earnings will be subject to income tax and may be subject to a 10% IRS penalty tax if taken prior to age 59½. An annuity contract may be purchased on a non-qualified basis or for use within certain qualified retirement plans or arrangements that receive favorable tax treatment. Many of these qualified plans, including IRAs, provide the same type of tax-deferral as provided by an annuity contract, and the annuity contract does not provide any additional tax-deferral benefit. An annuity contract, however, does provide a number of other benefits and features not provided by such retirement plans or arrangements alone. Consult with a qualified tax and/or financial professional regarding the use of an annuity contract within a qualified plan or in connection with other employee benefit plans or arrangements.
